

Niko Szyjka appeared before Magistrate Elliot this morning, charged with not reporting under the Military Service Act. He is an Austrian by birth, but took the oath of allegiance to Great Britain in 1905, and now must do military service, was the judgment given. Paul Gauthier also appeared on the charge of not reporting. He was handed over to the military authorities.