

HIS LAST PAYMENT OF GERMAN PENSION

Money Running Short, Interned
Alien Is Informed.

KINGSTON, Ont., June 25.—A day or so ago S. J. Rodger, of this city, acting for the Netherlands Government, paid to Karl Kessler, a convict in the Portsmouth penitentiary the equivalent of about $300, being his pension from the German army, of which he had been a member for many years. Accompanying the pension was intimation from the German authorities that this would be the last instalment which Kessler would receive for sometime owing to the fact that money was becoming short in Germany.

Kessler was among the Germans interned in Fort Henry early in the war and gave considerable trouble to the guards, finally assaulting one of them so heavily that he landed behind the bars at Portsmouth, for his offence. He has still some time to serve there.
