

Pte. W. G. Bertram Gassed.

Pte. W. G. Bertram, who is reported shell-gassed, went overseas early in 1916 with the 123rd Battalion, and went to France in July of the same year. Pte. Bertram has been awarded the Long Service Medal for 20 years' service as a sergeant with the Royal Gren-adiers. He was born in Craigville, Simcoe County, 42 years ago, and has been in Toronto 27 years. Before enlisting he was on guard duty at Camp Kapuskasing. A brother-in-law, Major Maurice Wideman, died of wounds, and another is still in France. His wife resides at 196 Cottingham street.

Pte. Bertram.