

Foul Talker Fined — Harry Korona, Austrian dairyman from North Transcona, called a Canadian Pacific railway constable foul names Thursday afternoon. Korona's cows went on the railroad track and when a constable checked him up for it the bad language started. Today Magistrate Noble fined him $10 for the language he had used and turned him over to the Military Intelligence department with the recommendation that he be interned for the duration of the war.