

W. D. CHARTER.

Walter David Charter, son of the late David Charter, and stepson of Henry Von Wurden, 119 Turner street, died at his home after a short illness of pneumonia. Mr. Charter was in his 23rd year, and before taking sick was employed at the Government Internment Camp at Kapuskasing. Besides his parents, he leaves three brothers, John and Robert in France on active service; Patrick, of Ottawa; and one sister, Mrs. Annie Croteau, of Ottawa. The funeral will take place from his stepfather's house, 119 Turner street, on Wednesday afternoon, to Beechwood cemetery.
