

ALIENS SHOULDN'T VOTE.

Major H. J. Woodside, secretary of the Ottawa Great War Veterans' Association, spoke on "The Soldier and the Voter," before the Westboro G.W.V.A. Forum, in the Town Hall, Sunday night. Comrade C. Hossack, the president, occupied the chair. Solos by Comrade H. Douglas, accompanied on the organ by Mr. I. Newton, were much enjoyed by the large number present. Major Woodside expressed his opinion that more farmers and working men should be members of Parliament, and there should be fewer lawyers. He considered that aliens should not have a vote on account of their ignorance of our institutions.
