

SEVENTEEN FINED FOR NOT PAYING THEIR POLL TAX

Two Fined $15 and Costs on
Charge of Being
Drunk

Seventeen foreigners were fined $5 and costs in police court yesterday by Magistrate Elliot for non-payment of their poll tax. All of them were ordered to pay the poll tax at once in addition to the fine, with the alternative of twenty days in jail. This makes twenty-one men who have been fined for the same offence in the last two days.