

INTERNED PRISONER IS COMMITTED FOR TRIAL

VERNON, July 26.—Carl Wagner, a German prisoner in the internment camp here, was committed for trial yesterday on a charge of murder by Police Magistrate Heggie. On July 8, the accused and another prisoner, Leo Mueller, were engaged in a brawl at the camp, with the result that Mueller died three days later from the effects of a broken neck.