CFWWIRF WEBSITE REVAMPED TO OFFER MORE FEATURES

The Canadian First World War Internment Recognition Fund (CFWWIRF) has launched a refreshed and updated website at www.internmentcanada.ca.

The website, which offers quick and easy access to essential information relating to Canada's first national internment operations of 1914 to 1920, is part of the CFWWIRF's ongoing efforts to enhance the quality and availability of information to the general public. The website, which features a comprehensive list of educational resources and their links, also includes links to museums in Canada that have internment archives and artifacts.

Other features include:

- Map and list of internment camps
- CFWWIRF Annual Reports
- Grant application forms and criteria
- Projects funded to date
- Teachers guides and lesson plans for free download
- Links to other educational resources on internment
- Links to the websites of affected communities
- Lecture request form
- Various news articles on internment

About CFWWIRF

The Canadian First World War Internment Recognition Fund was established to support projects that commemorate and recognize the experiences of all of the ethno-cultural communities affected by Canada's first national internment operations of 1914 to 1920.
