

Canada Council for the Arts

Conseil des arts du Canada

With financial assistance from The Canada Council for the Arts through The Writers' Union of Canada

Banff Public Library is pleased to present a reading by Marsha Skrypuch

Marsha Skrypuch is the critically acclaimed author of sixteen books for young people. Her first book, Silver Threads (illustrated by Michael Martchenko) was inspired by the WWI internment of her own Ukrainian grandfather in Jasper Alberta. Another of her books, Prisoners in the Promised Land, is a diary novel about a young girl interned at Spirit Lake Quebec.

Join us on June 19th, 2013 at 7:30 PM
Banff Public Library (101 Bear Street)

For further information call 403-762-2661

