Report to: Canadian First World War Internment Recognition Fund
Andrea Malysh, Program Manager

Background: Canada's first National Internment Operations occurred during World War I. Through the War Measures Act of 1914, adopted on August 22, 1914, Canada confined more than 8500 "enemy aliens" (nationals of Germany, Austria-Hungary and later Turkey and Bulgaria). These men, women and children were interred in twenty-four camps across Canada.

The Internment Camp opened in Vernon, British Columbia on September 18, 1914 and remained in continuous operation until February 20, 1920. During this time period eleven men lost their lives in the Vernon Camp. All eleven were originally interred in the Pleasant Valley Cemetery in Vernon. At present only seven men remain interred in this cemetery. The remaining four of German origin and subsequently moved by the German War Graves Commission to the Woodland Cemetery in Kitchener, Ontario in the early 1970's.

Objective: Locate historical information on each of the eleven men (Mile Hećimović, Bernard Heiny, Ivan Jugo, Karl Johann Keck, Timoti Korejczuk, Leo Mueller, Stipan Šapina, Wasyl Shapka, Jure Vukorepa, Samuel Vulović and Wilhelm Heinrich Eduard Wolter) who perished in the Vernon Internment Camp.

Note: Spelling of names and locations contained within this report are as they appear on original documentation.

Subject: Mile Hećimović #533

aka Mile Hecimovich
Mile Ećimović
Mile Hecimovic
Mike Lachen
Mike Lachin

Findings:

Mile Hećimović was born about 1885 in Austria according to his Registration of Death. On his original grave marker, it also records 1885 as his year of birth. Currently, no church records can be located to determine an exact date of birth.

Mile's next of kin recorded in the War Graves Registry are two sisters, Jela and Anna Hecimovich living in Selo Bukovac, Persuic, Austria. On the original grave marker of Mile it details that he was from the Village Bukovac, Municipality Perušić. This location is the village of Bukovac Perušićki in the municipality of Perušić in present day Croatia. Research has shown that the surname Hećimović is still prominent in the village.

Mile arrived in Canada in June of 1914, into the district of Yale-Cariboo in 1915 and to Vernon in June of 1916. Reviewing records from Library and Archives Canada and the National Archives and Records Administration uncovered a number of immigration records for a Mile Hećimović / Ećimović. The most likely record is one detailing the arrival of a Mile Hecimovic into the Port of Baltimore, Maryland in August of 1909 on the ship Chemnitz that departed from Bremen, Germany. This is the only record for a Mile Hecimovic that was born around 1885 and originated from Perušić.

No record for Mile Hećimović / Ećimović or Mike Lachin was found in the 1910 United States Federal Census.

Reviewing border crossing records in and around 1914 revealed a crossing from the United States to Canada of Mike Lachin in August of 1914. Destination was listed as Port Alberni, British Columbia with the place of origin being Goldfield, Nevada. His next of kin recorded on the document is a sister Annie Lachin living in Austria.

No record of marriage was found for Mile Hećimović / Ećimović or Mike Lachin. According to his Registration of Death it lists his marital status as “single”.

Mile’s occupation has been recorded as a labourer or a miner.

Recorded in Roll Call, compiled by Lubomyr Y. Luciuk in 1999, a Mike Lachin was interned at Nanaimo, British Columbia however there is no date of internment listed. No recording of a Hećimović or Ećimović is listed in Roll Call Additions published in 2009.

Mile was admitted to the Vernon Jubilee Hospital on February 8, 1917, he died nine days later on February 17, 1917 from pulmonary tuberculosis that led to heart failure. He was interred in Section E, Block 8, Plot 1 of the Pleasant Valley Cemetery on February 20, 1917.

Subject: Bernard Heiny #742

aka Bernard Heimowski
Bernhard Himowski
Bernhard Heimowski

Findings:

Bernard Heiny was born January 6, 1883 in Stargard, Prussia according to his Registration of Death. Currently, no church records can be located to confirm the date of birth; however his marriage record also records his date of birth as January 6, 1883.

Bernard's next of kin recorded in the War Graves Registry is his father (no forename provided), living in Kreis Pr Stargart (Kreis Preußisch Stargard), Heramshof, West Prussia (Westpreußen).

Bernard arrived in Canada in 1913, into the district of Yale-Cariboo and to Vernon in September of 1915.

Reviewing records from Library and Archives Canada and the National Archives and Records Administration uncovered a passenger ship list for a Bernhard Himowski. Accompanying him were his wife Louisa (age 27) and son Bruno (age 5). The ship Pretoria departed from Hamburg, Germany and arrived in New York (Ellis Island), New York on May 22, 1913. The record details that the final destination of the family is Victoria, British Columbia.

A record of marriage was found for Bernhard Heimowski in Germany. He married Luise Emma Kohse on February 18, 1911. The Civil Registration Office is recorded as Berlin, Germany.

Bernard's occupation has been recorded as a labourer or a gardener.

No recording of a Heiny or Heimowski is listed in Roll Call compiled by Lubomyr Y. Luciuk in 1999, or in Roll Call Additions published in 2009.

Bernard died on December 2, 1918 in the Vernon Internment Camp of pneumonia after influenza. He was interred in Section E, Block 7a, Plot 2 of the Pleasant Valley Cemetery on December 3, 1918.

Subject: Ivan Jugo #108

aka John Jugo

Findings:

Ivan Jugo was born in March of 1887 in Fiume, Austria according to his Registration of Death. Today Fiume is known as Rijeka, Croatia. Currently, no church records can be located to determine an exact date of birth.

Ivan's next of kin recorded in the War Graves Registry are two brothers, Frank and Virgo Jugo at Mihontici (presumed to be Mihotići) Post Office in Francici, Austria. Today Mihotići is a settlement of Matulji, Croatia.

Ivan arrived in Vernon in September of 1916. Reviewing records from Library and Archives Canada and the National Archives and Records Administration uncovered two possible immigration records. The most likely record is one detailing the arrival of an Ivan Jugo into the Port of New York (Ellis Island), New York. He arrived on April 6, 1912 on the ship Atlanta that departed from Trieste, Italy. The final destination is recorded as Westminster, Canada. This record lists the mother of Ivan Jugo as Rozalija Jugo. However, the one detail that fails to fit completely is that the last permanent residence of the Ivan on the record was Perušić, Austria, around 150 km away from Fiume.

Reviewing border crossing records between Canada and the United States revealed no records for an Ivan Jugo.

No record of marriage was found for an Ivan Jugo. According to his Registration of Death it lists his marital status as "single".

According to Roll Call compiled by Lubomyr Y. Luciuk in 1999, an Ivan Jugo was interned at Victoria, British Columbia however there is no date of internment listed. No recording of a Jugo is listed in the Roll Call Additions published in 2009.

Ivan was admitted to the Vernon Jubilee Hospital and died on March 12, 1917 from tuberculosis of the intestines that led to heart failure. According to his Registration of Death, he spent six months at the hospital from September 6, 1916 until his death. He was interred in Section E, Block 8, Plot 3 of the Pleasant Valley Cemetery on March 15, 1917.

Note that his original grave marker reflects the incorrect date of death of March 3, 1917.

Findings: Karl Johann Keck was born about 1873 in Bavaria, Germany according to his Registration of Death. One birth record was located for a Karl Johann Keck born November 17, 1874 in Augsburg, Oberhausen, Germany.¹⁹ Oberhausen is one of the seventeen Planungsräume (planning district) of Augsburg, Bavaria, Germany. Two baptism records were discovered for this Karl Johann Keck, one on November 23, 1874 in Augsburg, Bayern and the second on January 6, 1875 in Oberhausen, Württemberg. Both record the date of birth as November 17, 1874. The former lists the parents as Benedikt Keck and Paulina Rall or Scheerer, the latter as Benedikt Keck and Christine Pauline Scheerer.²⁰

The next of kin recorded in the War Graves Registry for Karl is recorded as Anton Keck, a brother, a Corporal in the Medical Corps, 5th Reserve Infantry Regt., Landan, Pflaz, Germany.

Karl arrived in Canada in 1905, into the district of Yale-Cariboo and to Vernon in late 1914 or early 1915. Reviewing records from Library and Archives Canada and the National Archives and Records Administration uncovered no immigration or border crossing records for a Karl Keck.

No record for a Karl Keck was found in the 1911 Census of Canada. His Registration of Death indicates that Karl was living in Vancouver, British Columbia until 1911 where he worked as a longshoreman and then in Langdon, Alberta working in a hotel as a night clerk.

No record of marriage was found for a Karl Keck. According to his Registration of Death it lists his marital status as “single”.

Karl’s occupation has been recorded as a longshoreman or a hotel clerk.

Subject: Timoti Korejczuk #1018

aka Timothy Korejczuk
Tymofei Koreichuk
T. Koreichuk

Findings:

Timoti Korejczuk was born on August 19, 1879 in Austria according to his Registration of Death. Currently, no church records can be located to confirm this date of birth. It has been determined his likely place of birth was Kotzman (presumed to be Kitsman), Bukovina, Austria.

Timoti's next of kin recorded in the War Graves Registry is his mother, Paraska Korejczuk living in Kolzaman (presumed to be Kitsman), Bukowina, Austria.

Timoti arrived in Canada in approximately 1913, into the district of Yale-Cariboo and to Vernon, British Columbia four days prior to his death that occurred on September 15, 1919. Reviewing records from Library and Archives Canada and the National Archives and Records Administration uncovered no immigration records for a Timoti Korejczuk / Koreichuk.

No record for a Timoti Korejczuk / Koreichuk was found in the 1916 Canada Census of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta.

No record of marriage was found for a Timoti Korejczuk / Koreichuk. According to his Registration of Death it lists his marital status as "single".

Timoti's occupation has been recorded as a bookkeeper.

In the Dictionary of Canadian Biography an entry for Tymofei Koreichuk was submitted by Orest T. Martynowych²⁴. In this article, he describes Timoti as a labour organizer and political activist. In 1902, Timoti started a branch of the Sich Society in the town of Kitsman, this Society challenged clerical leadership and promoted self-reliance amongst peasants and labourers. He continued as the organizer of this society until 1906. It was then that Timoti helped form the Bukovynian section of the Ukrainian Social Democratic Party. Ill health (chronic lung issues), poverty and repression had him immigrating to Canada in 1913.

In Canada, Timoti joined the Federation of Ukrainian Social Democrats that in 1914 was renamed to the Ukrainian Social Democratic Party of Canada. Timoti served as the western organizer of the party from October 1914 to May 1915, visiting branches in Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia often speaking at gatherings that numbered into the hundreds. From 1915 to 1918, Timoti continued on with activities as a speaker and organizer but ill health eventually forced him to settle in Vegreville, Alberta. He was arrested on September 5, 1919 in Alberta and subsequently transferred to the Vernon Internment Camp.

In Roll Call compiled by Lubomyr Y. Luciuk in 1999, a Timothy Korejczuk was interned at Vernon, British Columbia however there is no date of internment listed. No recording of a Korejczuk is listed in the document or in the Roll Call Additions published in 2009.

Timoti died in the Vernon Internment Camp on September 15, 1919 from syncope (or fainting, a temporary loss of consciousness due to a drop in blood flow to the brain). Given the chronic lung issues Timoti suffered it is likely the syncope resulted in a sudden cardiac arrest. He was interred in Section E, Block 5a, Plot 2 of the Pleasant Valley Cemetery on September 16, 1919.

Subject: Leo Mueller #369

Findings: Leo Mueller was born in Germany, according to his Registration of Death, however neither birth date nor an age at the time of death was provided on the document to determine an estimated birth year. Currently, no church records can be located to determine an exact date of birth. The 1911 Census of Canada records a birth for Leo of March 1878.

Leo's next of kin recorded in the War Graves Registry is his wife, Martha Mueller, who was interred in the Vernon Camp at the time of his death.

Leo arrived in Canada in 1906 and was naturalized in 1909. Reviewing records from Library and Archives Canada and the National Archives and Records Administration uncovered no immigration records for a Leo Mueller.

The 1911 Census of Canada has Leo living at 1247 7th Avenue W., Vancouver, British Columbia. Also in the household are his wife, Martha, born in Germany in September of 1888; son Leo E.A. born April 1909 in British Columbia; and daughter Louisa H.L., born April 1911 in British Columbia. Also residing in the house was a domestic by the name of Chloe Welsh.

Reviewing records from the British Columbia Provincial Archives, a marriage registration was located for Leo Mueller. He married Martha Persike, daughter of August Persike and Louise Thurezo in Vancouver on July 4, 1908. According to the registration Leo was born in Braunschweig, Germany, son of Heinrich and Johanna Mueller.

Additional findings in the British Columbia Provincial Archives revealed two death registrations related to Leo Mueller. The first was for a six month old baby by the name of Louise Mueller who died in October of 1911 in Vancouver of cholera infantum. No parent's names are recorded. The second document was for a Victor Mueller, son of Leo Mueller and Marta Persike who died on July 18, 1914 in Penticton, British Columbia of strychnine poisoning. He was born on November 22, 1912. It notes on this death registration that the Mueller's had previously lived in Merritt, British Columbia.

Leo's occupation has been recorded as a hairdresser.

According to his Registration of Death, Leo had been interned in the Vernon Camp from 1916 until his death in 1919.

No recording of a Leo Mueller is listed in Roll Call compiled by Lubomyr Y. Luciuk in 1999, or in Roll Call Additions published in 2009. In Roll Call a Mrs. M. Mueller is included.

Leo was admitted to the Vernon Jubilee Hospital on July 9, 1919 suffering a fracture of the neck due to an altercation with a fellow prisoner, he died four days later on July 12, 1919. He was interred in Section E, Block 9a, Plot 3 of the Pleasant Valley Cemetery on July 12, 1919.

Subject: Stipan Šapina #746

aka Steve Sapich
 Stephen Sapina
 Stephen Sabish

Findings:

Stipan Šapina was born about 1894 in Zupanjac, Bosnia according to his Registration of Death. This information was provided by his brother, Nick Šapina (#711) who was also interned at the Vernon Internment Camp at the time of his brother's death. Currently, no church records can be located to determine an exact date of birth.

Stipan's next of kin recorded in the War Graves Registry is his brother Nick Sapich. On the Registration of Death, it records his parents' names as Bert and Luca Sapina.

Research into the location of Zupanjac has determined that today three places of that name exist, one each in Serbia, Croatia and Bosnia and Herezegovina.

Stipan arrived in Canada around 1913, into the district of Yale-Cariboo and Vernon in December of 1915. Reviewing records from Library and Archives Canada and the National Archives and Records Administration uncovered no immigration or passenger list records for a Stipan Šapina / Sapich / Sabish, however one record was found for his brother, Nick Sapina who arrived in the Port of New York, New York on March 31, 1910. His final destination was recorded as Great Falls, Montana. It was recorded that his last place of residence was Zupanac and that he was Croatian.

On the Registration of Death, it records that Stipan had previously lived in Victoria, British Columbia and Seattle, Washington.

No record of marriage was found for Stipan Šapina / Sapich / Sabish. According to his Registration of Death it lists his marital status as "single".

Stipan's occupation has been recorded as a labourer or a coal miner.

In Roll Call compiled by Lubomyr Y. Luciuk in 1999, a Stipan Sapina was interned at Victoria, British Columbia however there is no date of internment listed. There is no recording of a Sapina, Sapich or Sabish in the Roll Call Additions published in 2009.

Stipan died in the Vernon Jubilee Hospital on May 21, 1917 from tubercular meningitis that led to heart failure. The Registration of Death reflects that he was under a physician's care from February 19, 1916. He was interred in Section E, Block 8, Plot 4 of the Pleasant Valley Cemetery on May 23, 1917.

Subject: Wasył Shapka #974

aka V. Szapka
 Wasył Szapka

Findings:

Wasył Shapka was born on February 23, 1892 in Koczman (presumed to be Koczman), Bukovina, Austria according to his Registration of Death. Currently, no church records can be located to confirm the accuracy of the date. The name of Wasył's father is recorded as Hryhor Shapka on the Registration. There is no next of kin recorded in the War Graves Registry for Wasył.

Wasył arrived in Canada about 1908, into the district of Yale-Cariboo and to Vernon in late August of 1918.

Reviewing records from Library and Archives Canada and the National Archives and Records Administration uncovered a number of immigration records for a Wasył Shapka / Szapka. The most likely record is one detailing the arrival of a Wasył Shapka into the Port of Montreal, Quebec on June 23, 1908 on the ship Montezuma that departed from Antwerp, Belgium. The final destination is recorded as Winnipeg, Manitoba. This is the only record for a Wasył Shapka that was born around 1892; however there is a discrepancy in that this Wasył Shapka came from Galicia, not Bukovina.

There were several possible entries of a Wasył Shapka / Szapka in the 1911 Census of Canada and the 1916 Canada Census of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta, however there was not enough proof provided to conclusively state any are the correct Wasył Shapka.

No record of marriage was found for a Wasył Shapka / Szapka. According to his Registration of Death it lists his marital status as "single".

Wasył's occupation has been recorded as a labourer.

In Roll Call compiled by Lubomyr Y. Luciuk in 1999, a Wasył Shapka was interned at Mara Lake, British Columbia on July 4, 1916. A second Wasył Shapka is listed as being interned at Kapuskasing, Ontario with POW# 974 and “deceased” noted. There was no listing for a Wasyl Shapka in the Roll Call Additions published in 2009.

Wasyl died on December 10, 1918 at the Vernon Internment Camp from double pneumonia after influenza. He was interred in Section E, Block 7A, Plot 1 of the Pleasant Valley Cemetery on December 11, 1918.

Subject: Jure Vukorepa #719

aka George Vukop
G. Vukorepa

Findings:

Jure Vukorepa was born in Austria according to his Registration of Death. His age at the time of death was recorded as 30 years making the approximate year of birth 1886. On the original grave marker of Jure it details that he was born in 1887. Currently, no church records can be located to determine an exact date of birth.

Jure's next of kin recorded in the War Graves Registry is his father (no forename provided) living in Sibenick (presumed to be Šibenik), Dalmatia, Austria, now present day Croatia.

The Registration of Death provides no details of when Jure arrived in Canada or in Vernon. The document only reveals that Jure had been previously interned at the Mara Internment Camp.

Reviewing records from Library and Archives Canada and the National Archives and Records Administration uncovered no definite records for a Jure Vukorepa / Vukop. A passenger list arriving at the Port of New York, New York on April 2, 1906 has a Gero Vukorep recorded, however the year of birth for this man is recorded as 1881.

No recording for a Jure Vukorepa / Vukop was found in the Canada or United States Census records.

No record of marriage was found for a Jure Vukorepa / Vukop. According to his Registration of Death it lists his marital status as "unknown".

Jure's occupation has been recorded as a labourer.

In Roll Call compiled by Lubomyr Y. Luciuk in 1999, a George Vukop (#719) was interned at Vernon, British Columbia however there is no date of internment listed. No recording of a Vukorepa or Vukop is listed in the document or in the Roll Call Additions published in 2009.

Jure was admitted to the Vernon Jubilee Hospital around August 24, 1916; dying on August 30, 1916 from haemorrhagic dysentery that led to heart failure. He was interred in Section E, Block 23, Plot 10 of the Pleasant Valley Cemetery on August 31, 1916.

Subject: Samuel Vulović #979
aka Samuel (Sam) Vulovich
Savo Vulovic
Saml Volovich
S. Vulović

Findings: Samuel Vulović was born April 15, 1880 in Braich, Austria according to his Registration of Death. His original grave marker also states he was born on April 15, 1880 in Austria. The Declaration of Intention to become a United States citizen states that Samuel was born September 10, 1880 in Braiche Bocheili, Austria. Currently, no church records can be located to confirm his date of birth.

Samuel's next of kin recorded in the War Graves Registry is a brother, Mike Vulovich living in Butte, Montana. On the Registration of Death it records that Samuel's father was Nickolas Vulovich born in Boca di Cattaro, Austria and his mother was Godana Martinovich born in Braich, Austria.

Samuel arrived in Canada around 1907, into the district of Yale-Cariboo and to Vernon in late September of 1916. The Declaration of Intention that Samuel filed on December 13, 1907 states he landed at the Port of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on or about October 7, 1905.

Reviewing records from Library and Archives Canada and the National Archives and Records Administration uncovered a passenger list for a Savo Vulovic who arrived on the ship Haverford on October 29, 1905 to the Port of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He was born about 1880 and his last residence was Bocca Cattare (presumed to be Boca di Cattaro). Savo's final destination was recorded as Anaconda, Montana. His brother Mile Vulovic was a resident of Anaconda at the time.

Immigration records for Samuel state that he was a Dalmatian.

No border crossing records were discovered for a Samuel Vulović, however according to various documents he was living in Douglas,

Alaska and Dawson City, Yukon prior to his arrival in British Columbia.

In the 1911 Census of Canada, Samuel was recorded as being incarcerated at the New Westminster Penitentiary. On his Registration of Death it alludes to the fact he had been imprisoned in the Penitentiary for 11 years.

No record of marriage was found for a Samuel Vulović. According to his Registration of Death it lists his marital status as “single”.

Samuel’s occupation has recorded as a miner or farm labourer.

In Roll Call compiled by Lubomyr Y. Luciuk in 1999, no recording of a Samuel Vulović exists, however there is an Emil Vukolich interned at Vernon. There was no listing for a Vulović in the Roll Call Additions published in 2009.

Samuel died at the Vernon Internment Camp on December 2, 1918 of a haemorrhage from a gastric ulcer, two months and six days after he was interned. He was interred in Section E, Block 7a, Plot 3 of the Pleasant Valley Cemetery on February 20, 1917.

Subject: Wilhelm Heinrich Eduard Wolter #346

aka William Henry Edward Wolters
Heinrich Eduard Wilhelm Wolter

Findings:

Wilhelm Heinrich Eduard Wolter was born on April 29, 1859 in Stettin, Germany according to his Registration of Death. One baptism record was located for a Wilhelm Heinrich Eduard Wolter born April 29, 1859. The baptismal date was June 12, 1859 in Sankt Jakobi, Stettin Stadt, Pommern, Prussia.⁶⁰ The transcript of the document has the father's name recorded as Wilhelm August Wolter and mother as Wilhelmine Louise Auguste Berthold.

Wilhelm's next of kin recorded in the War Graves Registry is a wife, Mrs. W. H. E. Wolter living in London, England. Her address is recorded as 9 Torrianna (correct spelling is Torriano) Cottages on Leighton Road in the north-west area of London. Mrs. Wolter was living at the Torriano Cottages with a Mrs. Poynter.

Reviewing records from Library and Archives Canada and the National Archives and Records Administration reviewed no probable immigration records for a Wilhelm Heinrich Eduard Wolter. In addition, his Registration of Death made no reference when Wilhelm came to Canada or the Vernon area.

No record for a Wilhelm Heinrich Eduard Wolter was found in any Census of Canada or United States Federal Census. It was noted on the Registration of Death that Wilhelm was interned on May 14, 1915 and that prior to his internment he was living in Kamloops, British Columbia.

The City Directory for Kamloops in 1913 records a Wm H Wolter, barber, residing at 404 Lorne and working at 366 Victoria, also living in the house is Stella E. The 1914 Kamloops City Directory for 1914 lists Wm H Wolter, barber, residing at 404 Lorne and working at 47 Victoria.

Wilhelm's occupation has been recorded as a hair dresser or barber.

Neither Roll Call compiled by Lubomyr Y. Luciuk in 1999 or Roll Call Additions published in 2009 record Wilhelm Wolter.

Wilhelm died at the Vernon Internment Camp on May 6, 1918 around 11:00 am, from syncope as a result of pericarditis and endocarditis. He was interred in Section E, Block 56, Plot 4 of the Pleasant Valley Cemetery on May 8, 1918.
